O/PERS/BSD, called Aaron Vogel, in Representative Herbert E. Harris' (D., Va.) Manassas office, concerning their interest in the case of [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] a former Agency employee who has a claim pending with the Department of Labor for an impairment of his hearing while employed as an Agency technician. I explained to Mr. Vogel that the second on-sight test in July was being conducted at the request of the Department of Labor and not the Agency. However, the second test actually is to the benefit of [redacted] since the first reading was too low to have caused any physical disability. The machinery involved will be in full operation in July. I gave her the name and number of the claims examiner in the Department of Labor who is handling the case and said she should feel free to call. I made it clear to her that the claim is being handled completely by the Department of Labor.

25X1 16. [redacted] Picked up from Jim Kronfeld, Counsel, House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, certain personal material from him and delivered it to Mr. Warner, OGC.
